

ABOUT CORK & FORK

From a family of 12 generations of vigneron and winemakers, the career of Cork & Fork founder, Dominique Landragin, spans 40 years of expertise in all aspects of the wine business. From the Champagne houses of Lanson and Deutz, Chateau de l'Aulee in Loire Valley, France, Seppelt & Sons and Yellowglen in Australia, and Prince Michel in Virginia, Dominique relentlessly made wines that reflected the truth of the soil and grape.

The creation of the first Cork & Fork store was realized with wife Anna, and continued with daughter Antoinette. The Cork & Fork concept combines Dominique's passion for Old World terroirs together with the ever-evolving wines of the New World. Each store caters to private wine events with a distinguished and classic touch. Running parallel to the extensive wine selection is a finely tuned micro-brew collection.

We enjoy selecting world-class wines for your table and we hope you do enjoy shopping in our stores.
